

Chirag meets Shah, NDA seat formula almost final

LIZ MATHEW
NEW DELHI, OCTOBER 1

A MEETING between top BJP leaders, including Home Minister Amit Shah, and BJP president Chirag Paswan on Thursday hinted that the NDA's seat-sharing formula for the upcoming Bihar election is close to being finalised, BJP sources said. Party sources said the BJP's Central Election Committee is likely to meet Sunday and release the first list of candidates. Chirag, who has been under pressure from his party leaders to go it alone in 143 constituencies, met BJP President P Nadda for the second time this week. "Chirag's meeting with Shah indicates that the BJP would be a part of the NDA in the October-November election," a BJP leader said.

While the BJP and JD(U) are continuing their discussions in Patna over the seat-sharing formula, party sources said both sides could agree to keep aside the share of smaller allies from their quota — the BJP would have to provide the BJP seats from its share and the JD(U) would keep aside seats for HAM (S).

This would make the JD(U)'s position more advantageous as the BJP is demanding 25-30 seats while the HAM's requirement is less. "Keeping this in view, the BJP would like to have the bigger chunk in its seat-sharing with the JD(U)," said a BJP leader.

The three-phase elections to the 243-member Assembly will begin on October 28. Results will be declared on November 10.

After loyalty 'warning' from Lalu, RJD not ready to give Cong more than 60 seats

SANTOSH SINGH
PATNA, OCTOBER 1

WHILE THE nomination process for the first phase of Bihar Assembly elections got under way on Thursday, the Opposition Grand Alliance appears to be stuck over seat-sharing, with RJD national president Lalu Prasad reportedly having given a clear message to son and the party's chief minister face Tejashwi Yadav not to offer the Congress more than 60 or 61 seats.

The Congress has sought to contest on around 70 seats. The CPI(M), which had been offered 15 seats by the RJD, has said no to the offer and declared a list of 30 candidates.

CPI(M)'s Bihar office secretary Kumar Parvez said: "We are not ready to accept the kind (number) of seats RJD is offering us. We have put forward our demand; now it is up to RJD to take a final call. Meanwhile, we have released our first list of 30 candidates."

On seat arrangement with the Congress, an RJD leader elaborated, "As the Congress can easily shift its loyalty to the other camp [Nitish Kumar's JD-U, in case the results throw up a hung Assembly] after the election results, Lalu Prasad wants RJD to contest on the maximum number of seats. Besides, it is always easy for smaller parties to split when a majority of its legislators want to shift their loyalty."

The RJD said RLP leader Upendra Kushwaha was let go because his "loyalty to the Grand Alliance was wavering".

Bihar Congress spokesperson Rajesh Rathore, however, rounded confidence of stitching up things soon. He told The Indian Express: "We will share seats amicably. It might take a day or two."

According to the RJD leader quoted above, the party is looking to contest on 150-plus seats. "We had offered three Left parties and JMM [Jharkhand Mukti Morcha] 25 seats altogether. While CPI and CPI(M) looked keen to take our offer, CPI(M) wants 20 seats. Our leadership has decided against compromising with allies and potential allies beyond a point," the leader said.

The RJD leader added that Vikashli Insaan Party (VIP) is trying to bargain hard with the main opposition party in the state.

Former CM Jitan Ram Manjhi's Hindustani Awam Morcha (Secular) and RLP have so far left the Grand Alliance, ostensibly due to the RJD's tough stance on the seat-sharing formula.

Another RJD leader said alliance partners had not been able to transfer their votes to RJD, which failed to open its account in last year's Lok Sabha polls, down

EXPLAINED

RJD wary of Cong-Nitish show in hung House

AFTER ITS dismal show in last year's Lok Sabha polls, in which it drew a blank, the RJD has decided on not giving enough leverage to allies at its cost. The party also feels the Congress will always be open to a post-poll alliance with Nitish Kumar in case of a hung Assembly. So the fewer seats the Congress contests on, the lesser leverage it will have after the results, according to RJD's scheme of things.

from four seats won in 2014. "We will not allow any extra baggage this time. We will fully test our strength," the leader said.

The RJD has 81 seats in the present Assembly. Asked about RJD's tough stance, Congress's Rathore said senior leaders from both RJD and Congress had been working it out.

Mix of virtual, physical campaigning, says CEC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
PATNA, OCTOBER 1

WITH FILING of nominations for the Bihar Assembly election beginning on Thursday, Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Sunil Arora said that the poll campaign will be a combination of virtual and physical campaigning and it was up to the district administration to ensure that distancing norms are followed.

The EC has demanded a list of venues where public meetings can be held in accordance with the commission's guidelines.

Warned of action over social media misuse

Arora said the EC would take stringent possible action over misuse of social media if anyone is found provoking caste or communal violence. "Our law is still not very strong. But we would take all possible action," Arora told a press conference as a team from the Commission wrapped up its visit to the poll-bound state.

AMNESTY INDIA ISSUE

Expect other countries not to condone flouting of Indian laws 'by any entity': MEA

SHUBHAJITROY
NEW DELHI, OCTOBER 1

WITH A senior official from the US, apart from the UK, the European Union (EU) and the United States Commission on International Religious Freedom (USCIRF), raising the issue of Amnesty India shutting down its operations, New Delhi on Thursday said that it expects other governments to "not condone contravention of Indian laws by any entity".

Ministry of External Affairs' official spokesperson Anurag Srivastava on Thursday said that the Union Home Ministry, which deals with FCRA-related issues and foreign funding of NGOs, has said that "NGOs are expected to adhere to all our laws, including in respect of foreign funding, just as they presumably would, in other countries including in the US, and in the European Union".

He said, "We also expect that other governments would not condone contravention of Indian laws by any entity."

Earlier on Thursday, a senior US State Department official told journalists in Washington DC that Amnesty International shutting down its operations in India, after its bank accounts were frozen, "has received attention at the highest levels" in the US government.

Asked about New Delhi's action against Amnesty International, the official said, "We've been focused, we've been very, very closely following this issue... It has received attention at the highest levels of our government. We look forward to a response, and a resolution to a situation that's consistent with international principles and the rule of law."
